Please answer the following questions in 300 words or less, unless otherwise specified.

- 1) Specific to your time on the Special Olympics Committee, name an instance when a person or a situation challenged your thinking. What did you take away from this experience, and how will it serve you going forward?

- 2) As a leader in an organization based in the mission of inclusion, members of the Committee are expected to uphold the values of Special Olympics throughout the year. As a Committee member, how would you plan to promote inclusion in your own life, and in the lives of others, outside of Fall Festival weekend?

- 3) Please elaborate on your preferred committee(s). What characteristics do you believe you have that make you the best candidate and what visions do you have for the position(s) that will create a better Fall Fest experience?

- 4) Imagine you are a chef on a cooking show – what would your signature dish be?
(In 200 words or less)

We will be unable to accept all applicants onto Committee this year. However, we promise to give everyone the ability to spread the mission of Special Olympics should they wish to. If you are not placed on Committee this year, there will be several opportunities to get involved with Volunteer Coordinators, Inclusion Crew, Athlete Practices, Unified Events and Fundraising Events among various other events throughout the year. We will continue to communicate with you regarding these opportunities throughout the year!
